

Gloscat Community Excavation Interactive map: A guide

1. The map will open in this view
2. Use your left mouse button to pan around the map and your mouse wheel to zoom in and out (alternatively use the controls on bottom left of the screen)
3. Click on the symbols on the top lefthand side of the map to bring up a legend for the different periods of features discovered at Gloscat Community Excavation

4. You can left click on the different archaeological features within the two excavation areas and a pop-up will appear
5. The pop-up displays information about the feature such as feature type, description, period and finds recovered
6. A photo of the feature or a related image will also appear. Click on this to go to the Flickr website containing larger versions of the photos

7. All the images from the Gloscat Community Excavation are hosted on the Cotswold Archaeology Flickr webpage
8. See images of the archaeological features discovered, aerial images of the site during excavation and see the volunteers in action!
